Alawon a Chaneuon Sesh Sŵn Mehefin 2021

“Creaduriaid y Tir”

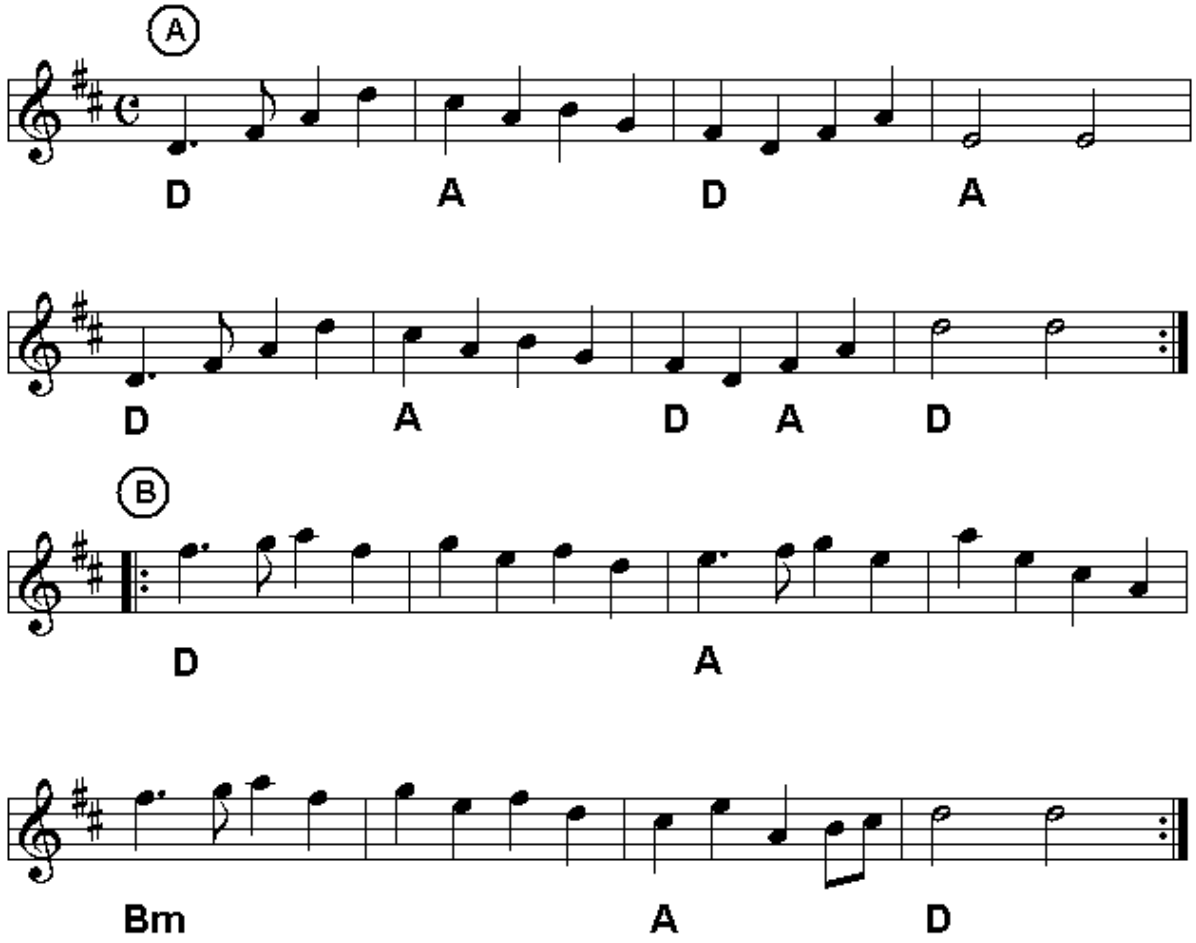

Pen pres ych, Caer Dinorben, Abergele, tua 50-150OC

“Dau ychen bannog, y lleill ysydd o'r parth hwnt i'r Mynydd Bannog a'r llall o'r parth hwn, ac eu dwyn i gyd dan yr un aradr. Ys hwy y rhai hynny, Nynniaw a Pheibiaw, a rithwys Duw yn ychen am eu pechod.”

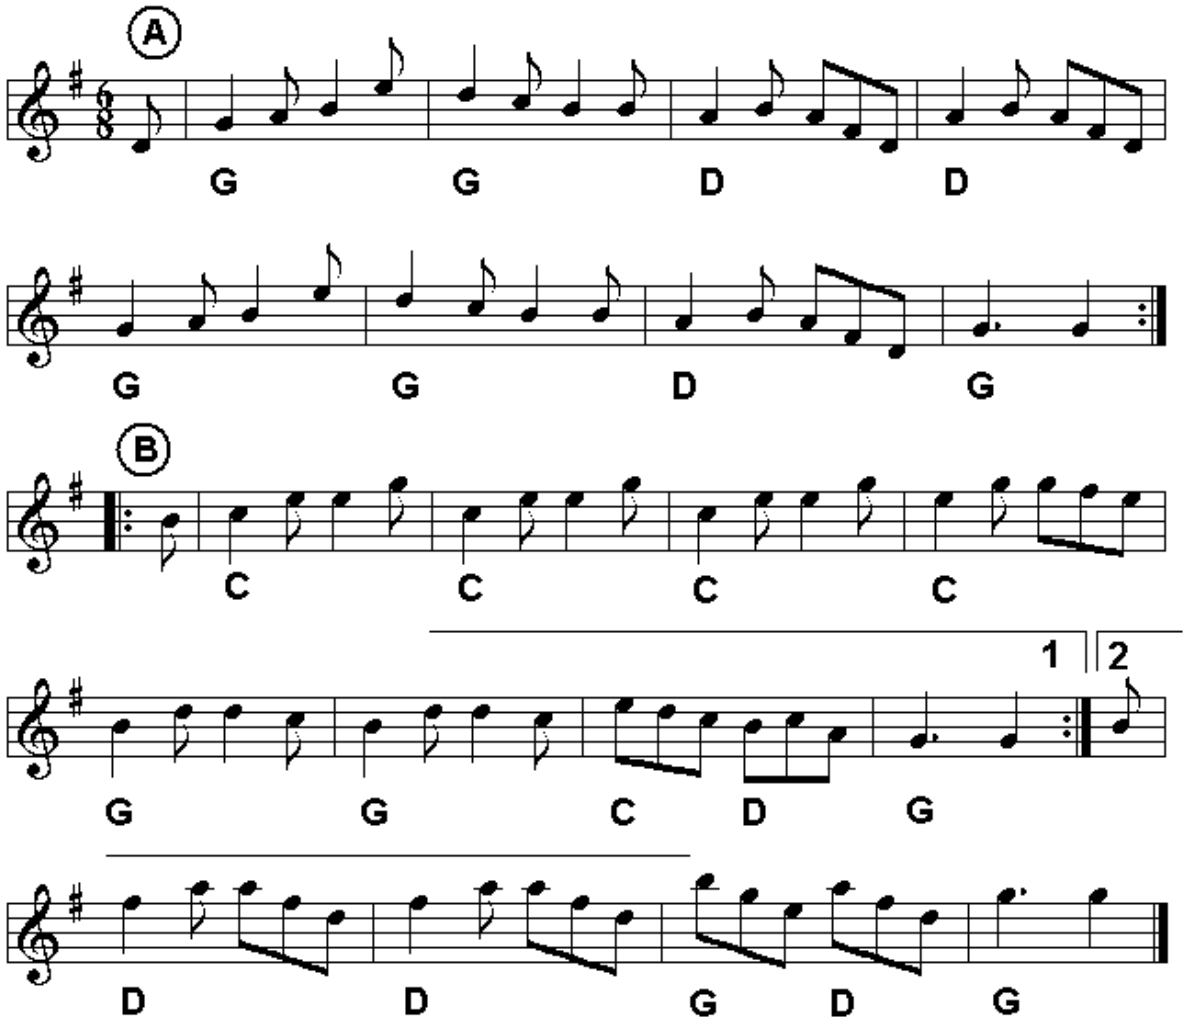

Culhwch ac Olwen

Hel y Sgwarnog

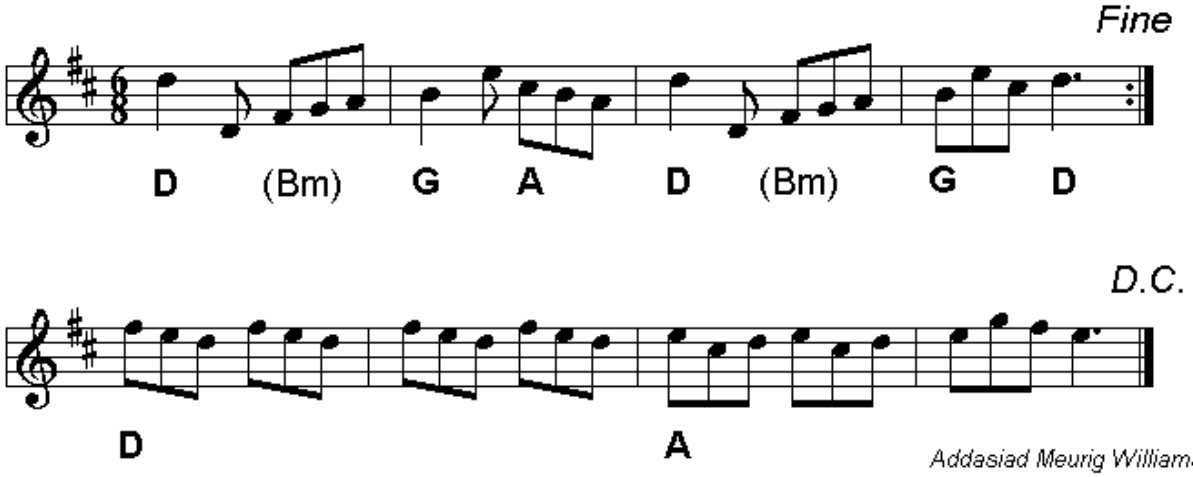

Addasiad Meurig Willliams

Hela'r Wiwer

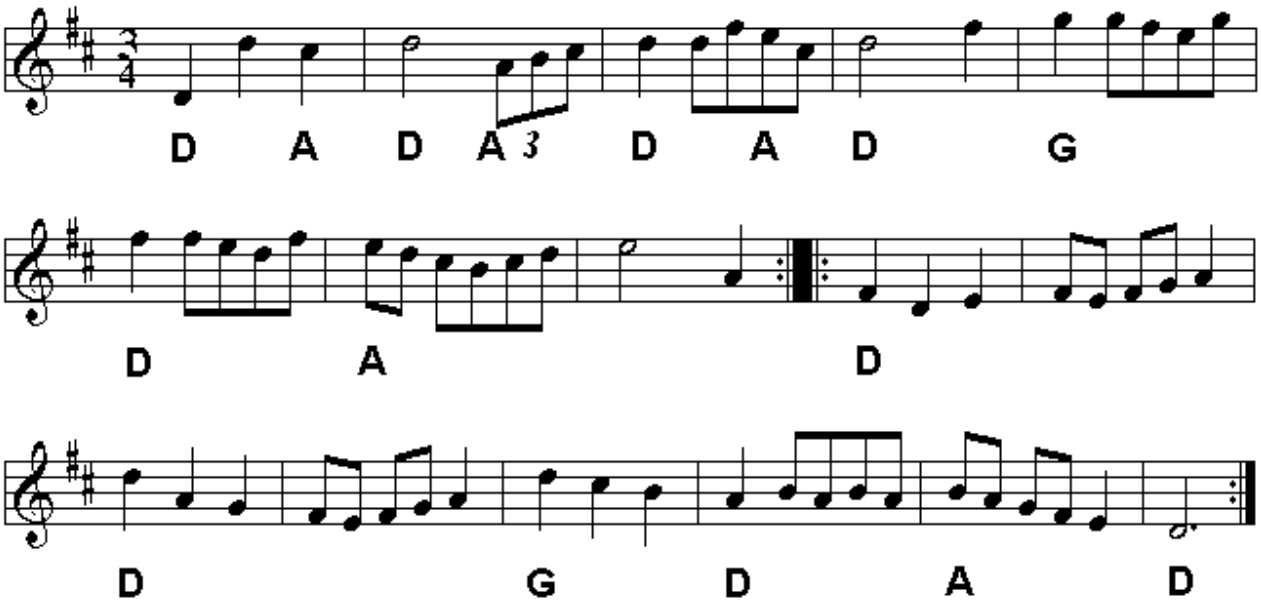

Trefniaint Meurig Williams

Hela'r Sgyfarnog

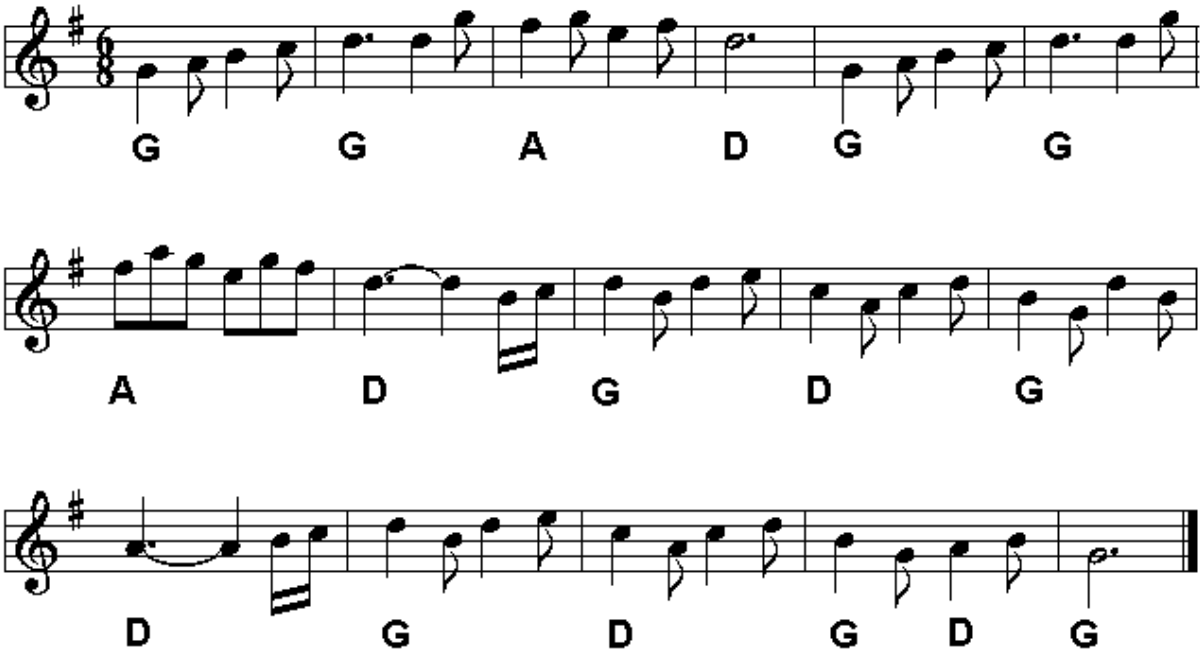

Addasiad Meurig Williams

Marwnad yr Heliwr

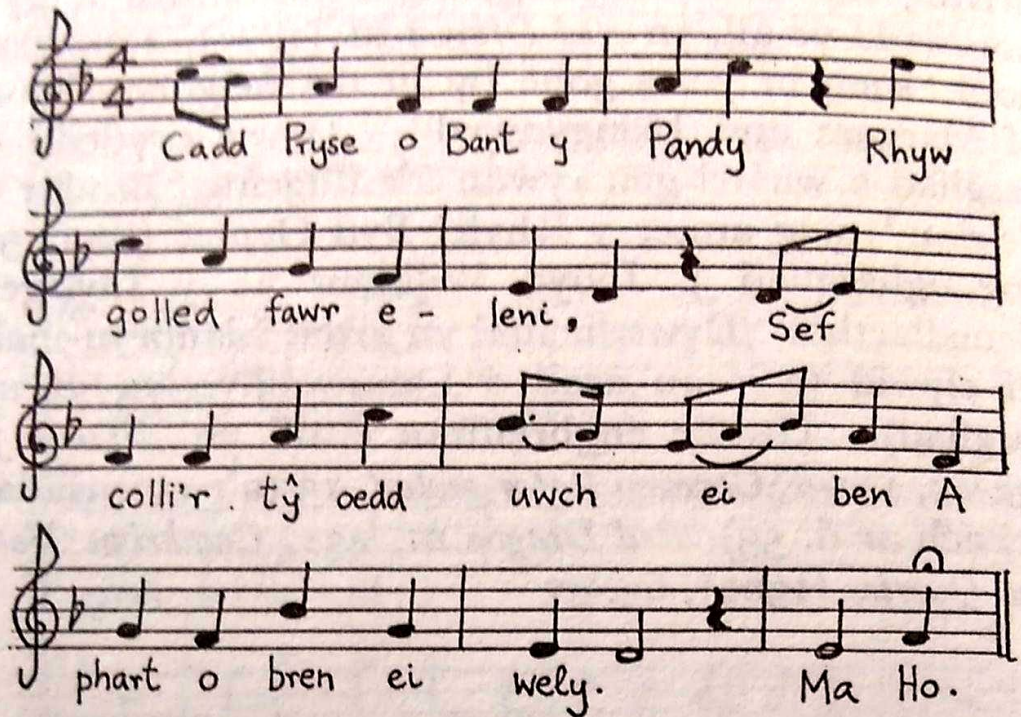

Y Ddafad Gorniog

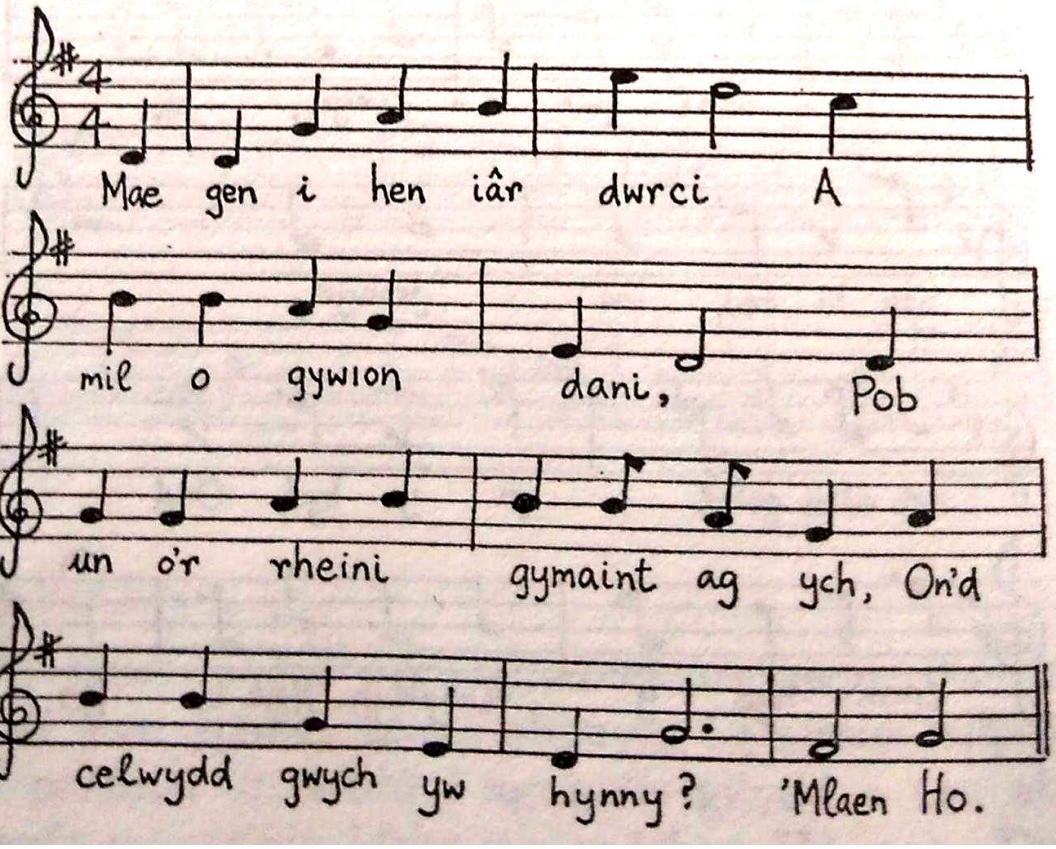

Addasiad Meurig Williams

CAINC 4

CAINC 5

Y Mochyn Du

John Owen

Holl drigolion bro a bryniau, Dewch i wrando hyn o eiriau,
D A

Fe gewch hanes rhyw hen fochyn A fu farw yn dra sydyn.
D (Bm) A

Cytgan:
O mor drwm yr ydym ni, O mor drwm yr ydym ni,
D A

Y mae yma alar caloooon... Ar ôl claddu'r Mochyn Du.
D G A

Beth oedd achos ei afiechyd? Beth roes derfyn ar ei fywyd?
Ai maidd glas oedd achos ange I'r hen Fochyn i fynd adre?

Fe rowd mwy o faidd i'r mochyn n'allsai fola bach e dderbyn,
Ymhen chydig o funude roedd y mochyn yn mynd adre.

Rhedodd Deio i Lwyncelyn i mofyn Mati at y mochyn;
Dwedodd Mati wrtho'n union gallsai roi e heibio'n burion.

Mofyn hers o Aberteifi a cheffylau i'w thynnu fyny,
Y ceffylau yn llawn mwrnin er mwyn dangos parch i'r mochyn.

Bellach rydwyf yn terfynu nawr gan roddi heibio canu;
Gan ddymuno peidiwch dilyn siampl ddrwg wrth fwydo'r mochyn.

" 'Y Mochyn Du', now so well known throughout the land; a song that will continue to corrupt the tastes of our young people when the tongue that first sang it will have long been silent in the grave. Forgive, O Lord, the sins of my youth!"

Llawysgrif hunangofiant John Owen